equipment services who:

(1) is required to be licensed under this chapter; and

(2) knowingly provides home medical equipment services without a license issued under this chapter;

commits a Class A misdemeanor.

(b) Each day a violation continues constitutes a separate offense.

(c) The board may, in the name of the state and through the attorney general, apply in a court to enjoin a person from providing home medical equipment services in violation of this chapter.

SECTION 2. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005] (a) As used in this SECTION, "board" refers to the Indiana board of pharmacy established by IC 25-26-13-3.

(b) As used in this SECTION, "provider" has the meaning set forth in IC 25-26-21-4, as added by this act.

(c) A person engaged in providing home medical equipment services (as defined in IC 25-26-21-3, as added by this act) business on June 30, 2005, and through June 30, 2006, is subject to inspection by the board for compliance with the standards set forth in IC 25-26-21, as added by this act.

(d) If, on the initial inspection under subsection (c), a provider who is accredited by a national organization passes the inspection, the board shall issue the provider a license under IC 25-26-21, as added by this act. If, on the initial inspection under subsection (c), a provider who is accredited by a national organization does not meet the inspection requirements, the board, after the adoption of rules under subsection (g) concerning the issuance of temporary licenses, shall issue the provider a temporary license for a period of twelve (12) months.

(e) When the board issues a temporary license under subsection (d), the board shall provide the provider in writing a list of the areas of noncompliance.

(f) After the twelve (12) month period described in subsection (d), the board shall conduct an inspection to determine whether the provider is in compliance with the standards set forth in IC 25-26-21, as added by this act. If the board determines that the provider meets the standards, the board shall issue the provider a license under IC 25-26-21, as added by this act. If the board determines that the provider is not in compliance, the board shall notify the provider in writing that the board is denying the provider a license.

(g) The board may adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 necessary to
